Villa Emil, Mykonos

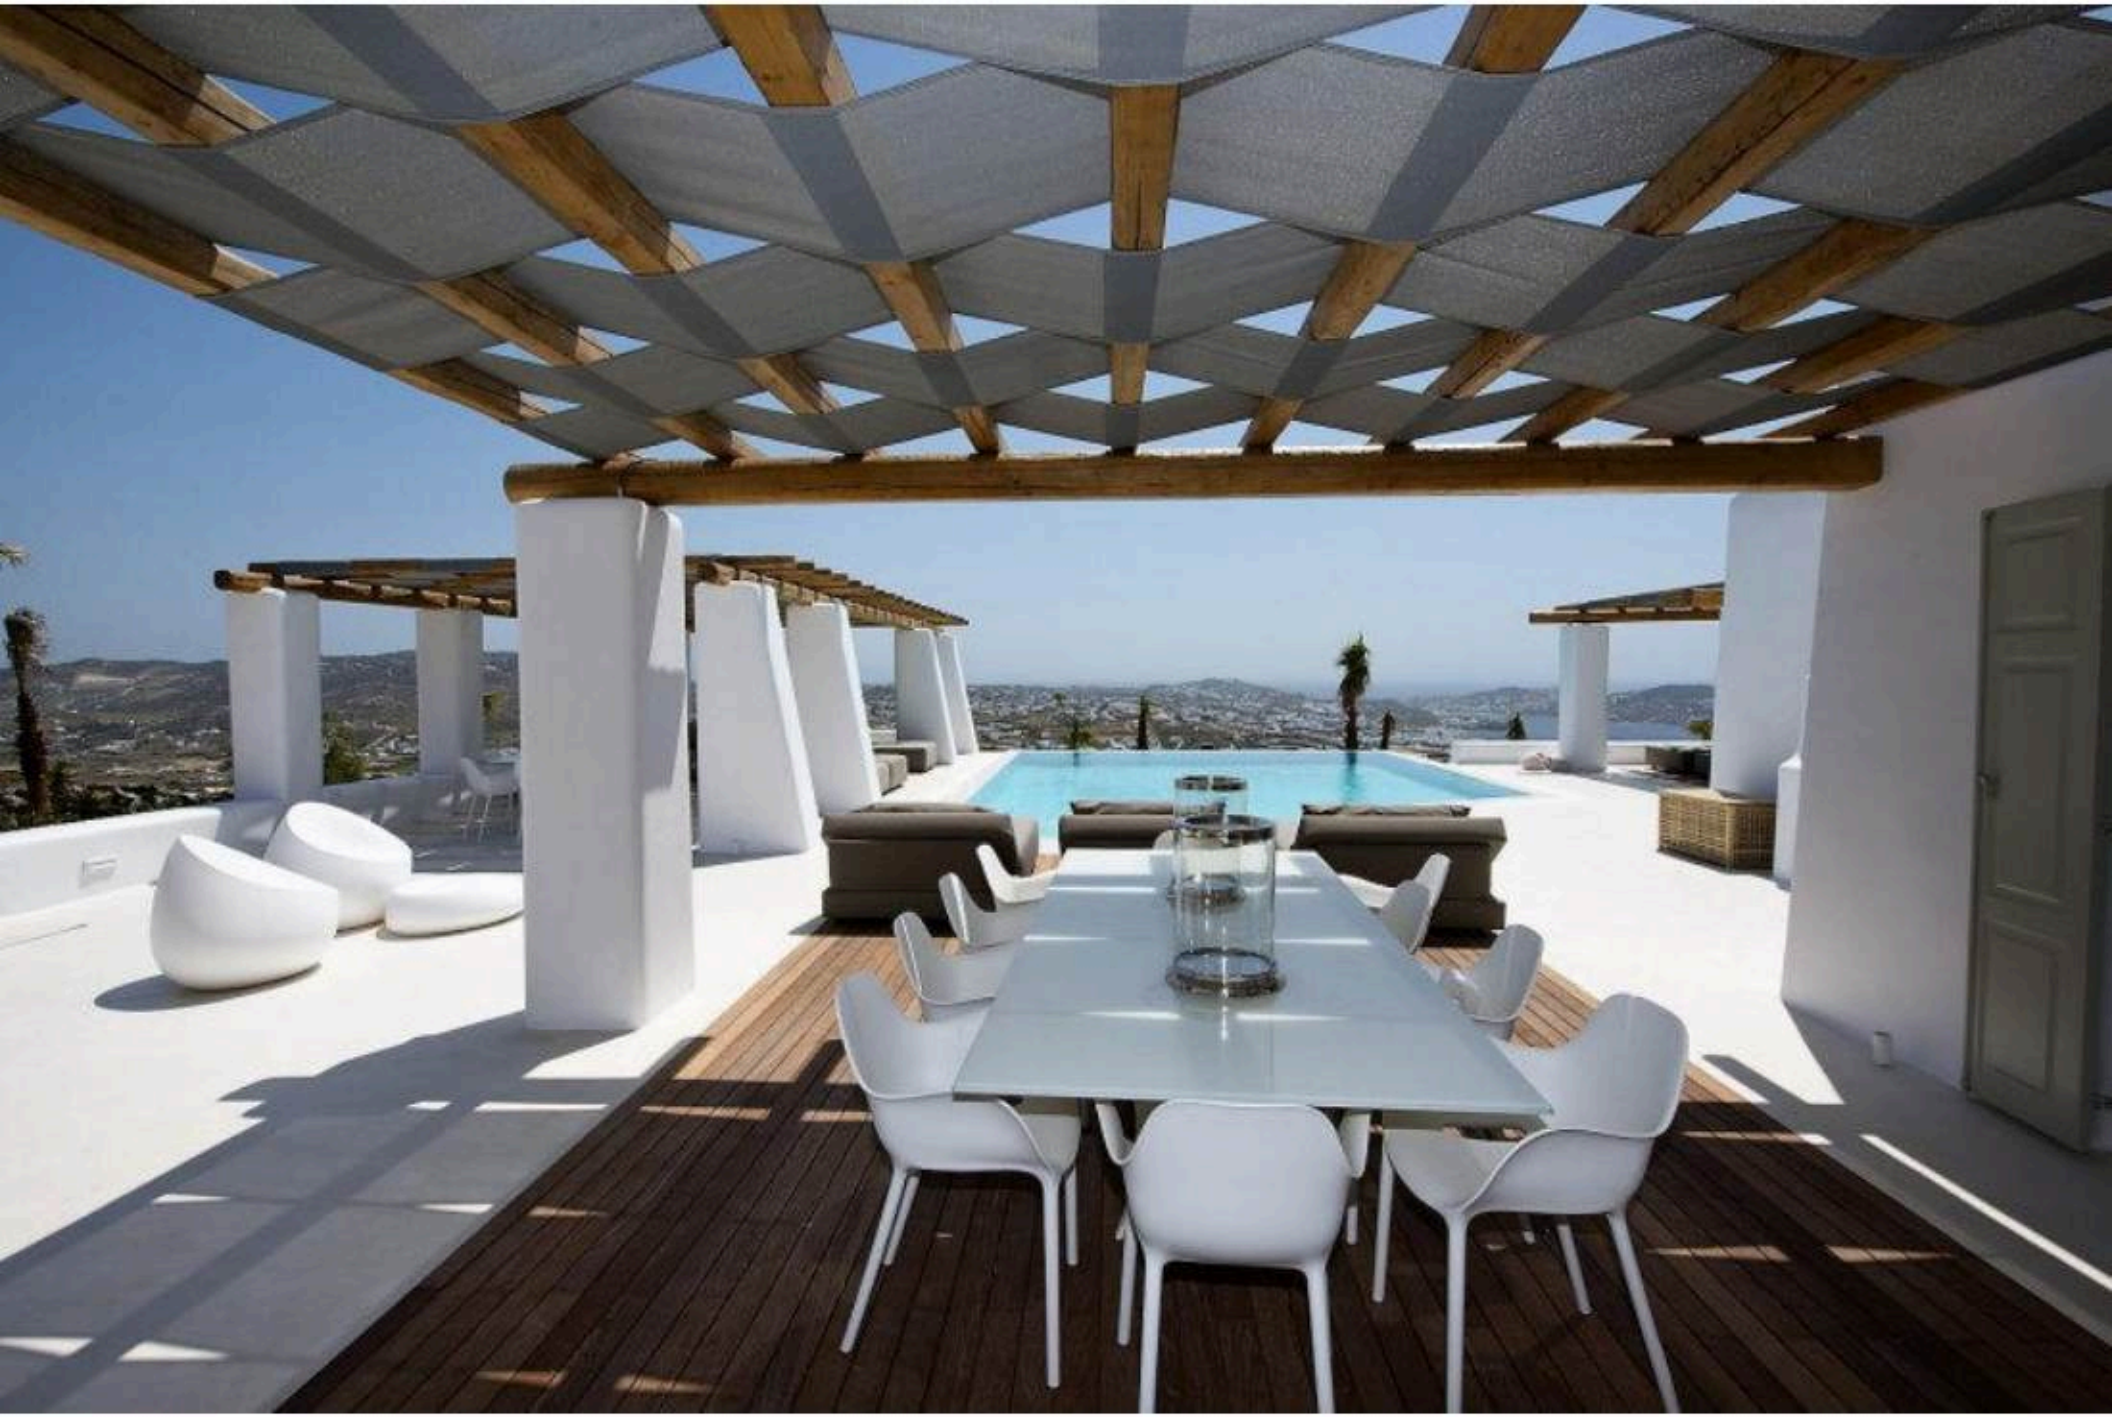

The Villa

This sophisticated villa is nestled in a slightly elevated position in the coastal area of Tourlos, and offers an enchanting view that stretches across the white houses of Mykonos Town and the endless blue of the sea. This newly-built chic vacation residence boasts a total living area of 383m2 and invites up to 16 guests to indulge in opulent comforts, specially formulated for an unforgettable stay.

The exterior of sugar-cube white and local stone embodies the ultimate combination of Cycladic architecture and contemporary design. The main highlight is the private infinity pool, with dazzling topaz waters, that smoothly melt into the Aegean Sea. Unwind on a comfortable sunbeds and marvel at the incredible scenery, lounge under the shaded pergola or savour a sea view lunch in the villa's shaded dining area.

Designed with utmost care for details, the refined interior is dominated by characteristic white surfaces and thoughtfully selected decorative objects. A palette of subtle greys, earthy hues and metallic textures has been used throughout, while the wood exposed ceilings and wood accented floors warm the energy. The 8 meticulously decorated bedrooms – 5 of which have their own private entrance – open up to a beautiful view. From the fully-equipped kitchen to the custom-made bathrooms, every room in this home radiates impeccable style.

Sitting just 3km from the beach of Agios Stefanos and 4km from the vibrance of Mykonos Town, this Greek island refuge is bathed in sunlight and refined luxury.
